THE SPENDING OF MONEY.

The Parents and Teachers' Union considered the subject of children and money spent. The Union is a schoolmen's bank, an institution which forms no unimportant part of the State school system of education.

Report of recent years go to show, however, that the total amount of money has not increased in number of depositors, nor in amounts deposited. They have, however, held their own, and the better general conditions of the times have helped to show an increase in the report of 1907-8.

In a Sydney suburban school, where the children are in the great majority conducted with very few ready posts, a teacher with 1000 students in senior classes, averaging over one hundred, the following questions were asked:

"How often do you have a banking account?"

"How much do you have in it?"

"How long have you been saving?"

"How much money do you put in the bank?"

"How do you get your own money?"

"What do you put in it for bank?"

"How often do you have pocket-money?"

"How often do you get it?"

"How do you do with it?"

"How often do you spend it?"

Taking the first 100, the following result was worked out:—33 children have bank accounts, ranging from £100 to £1000. 56 children have bank accounts ranging from £10 to £200. The children had been banking from one week up to 10 years. 56 children had money-boxes, with amounts from one farthing ($\frac{1}{4}$ cent) up to £1. 23 children banked their own money, while 33 banked or saved their parents'. 32 children had both a bank account and a money-box; 12 had a money-box only; while 36 had no money-boxes only.

The total amount in the bank to the credit of the 33 depositors was £111. 12s. 2d., while the total amount in the boxes was £100.

Ninety-four out of the hundred received pocket-money. Of these 77 worked for it in some way, chiefly domestic duties, while 17 got pocket-money from their parents. The first 100 children stated that they spent it; of the 94 there were 59 who spent it, 10 who saved part and spent part, and 15 who saved nothing. "I want to speak to you," she said, in a low, clear voice. "Please listen quite quietly, for some of them may begin to walk again."

Kralinsky bent his head twice, and then inclined it towards her, to hear better what she was going to say.

"It has pleased you to keep up this comedy for so long," she began.

He made a slight movement, which was natural under the circumstances.

"I do not understand," he said, in his only voice.

"I have no time to have no voice."

"I have a banking account?"

"How long have you been banking?"

"How much money do you put in the bank?"

"How do you get your own money?"

"What do you put in it for bank?"

"How often do you have pocket-money?"

"How often do you get it?"

"How do you do with it?"

"How often do you spend it?"

"How do you do with it?"

The form of spending was very varied, fruit, and chip potatoes, these latter being a common favourite. The pocket money was received from their children.

The 17 who got pocket money for nothing appear to have got it at any time.

The amounts varied from 3d to 1s. in an occasional 2s. or 3s. The 17 who got pocket money for nothing appear to have got it at any time.

But whatever you may have thought, I was a faithful wife. Mr. Van Torn had given me a great deal of money for my charity, and I have been saving it up, to buy clothes, to buy books, to go for a trip, to buy birthday presents, to get interested, to keep from getting old."

The saving and spending qualities of girls and boys were found about equal.
